

This program covers the function, types and key components of substations, and combines classroom instruction with hands-on, practical application. The majority of the program will be held at the NEPPA Training Facility in Pascoag, RI, although field trips to substations in various locations may be included.

Northeast Public Power Association

100 Medway Road, Suite 201
Milford, MA 01757
phone: 508.482.5906
fax: 508.482.0932
www.neppa.org

NEPPA

Substation Technician Training 2010

16 Days
8 am to 2 pm
NEPPA Training Center
Pascoag, R.I.

Substation Technician Training

Registration

This program has two levels, Module One and Module Two, which are offered in alternate years. Module One will be offered in 2010, and Module Two in 2011. Students may select the Module that fits with their experience and their learning goals. Those who enroll in Module One may, if they choose, continue with Module Two. Certificates will be awarded at the completion of each Module.

Module One: Operation and Maintenance

Transformers
Fuses, Breakers, Relays, Reclosers and Controls
Voltage Regulation
Structures, Insulators and Busses
Protective Relaying
Metering

Module Two: Design and Construction

Site Selection
Documents
Design
Physical Layout
Structures
Foundations
Grounding
Control House

16 days

February 9, 10, 11, 12, April 27, 28, 29, 30
September 7, 8, 9, 10, December 7, 8, 9, 10

8 am to 2 pm
NEPPA Training Center
Pascoag, R.I.

Instructor: Steve Socoby

Before joining NEPPA as a safety and technical trainer, Steve had more than thirty-five years of experience as a journeyman lineworker and line superintendent in Houlton, Maine.

Substation Technician Training

Mail or fax registration by Jan. 20, 2010 to:
Northeast Public Power Association
100 Medway Road, Suite 201
Milford, MA 01757
fax: 508.482.0932

CONTACT NAME _____
UTILITY _____
PHONE _____
FAX _____
NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS _____
NAME(S) OF PARTICIPANTS _____

Cost (lunch included)

Members	$ 2,450
Non-members	$ 3,675

For more information, contact Sharon Davies at (508) 482.5906 or sdavies@neppa.org

